Profile KOPRO-30 is a high-end, modern lighting product based on led lighting. Its universal appearance and application make it possible to mount it practically everywhere. It is a perfect supplement to other light sources, it can also be an element that shapes the character of the interior. The profile has a 30 degree angle of view, it is best presented when it is mounted in a right angle between the horizontal and vertical surfaces or between two vertical elements - for example between the walls of the furniture. Profile perfect for highlighting those parts of the interior that we want to emphasize and expose. It can be mounted in the living room, kitchen, bedroom and also in the bathroom - it is resistant to moisture. It will also work well in office space or for exhibition purposes - it can be mounted in shelves and displays at trade fairs and exhibitions.

The profile of KOPRO-30 is made of high quality aluminum with attention to the finest details. It is durable, durable, durable and resistant to mechanical damage. In addition, it is simple and hassle-free to install - it can be mounted on its own by the instructions that are included with each kit. KOPRO-30 profiles can be mounted to the ground using special screws, mounting glue or GP springs. The profile can be fitted with arched or straight sections. The kit is supplemented by a milk sheath that gently filters the light, making it slightly foggy and interesting in the interior. The profile is designed to attach to it leds with a width of no more than 10.8 mm.

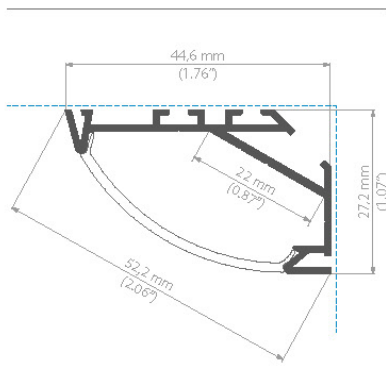

The KOPRO-30 profile is available in several standard lengths. However, it can also be easily cut to any size according to the customer's needs. High quality led profile is a guarantee of elegant and stylish lighting that will last for years.
